It was a Bee.

The Detroit Free Press contains the following:

Any one passing along Howard street just before noon yesterday would have seen him lying under one of the shade-trees in his yard, a pillow un-der his head, his feet on a bench, a magazine in his hands. He looked the picture of comfort and contentment, and the women going along with pull back dresses on, sighed and wished they were men. The great City Hall bell struck the hour of noon. The deep-toned echoes floated out on the still summer air and touched a tender cord in the Howard street man's heart. The echoes sounded to him like funeral whispers-like the whispers of the night wind sighing through the grand old wilderness.

"Oh! solemn bel!" he said. "Oh! sad, solemn-'

That was all he said about the bell. A bumble-bee settled down on him to look for sugar, and, as he turned partly over, he gave the bee a rub. It is a bad thing to rub any kind of a bee. He feels insulted, and gets annoyed at things which a mud-turtle or a dove would pass by without a thought.
The echoes of the bell were just dying San Fernando away when the Howard street man got up. He got up like a man in a mington will be varied so as to connect with steamer. hurry. He went away from there. He didn't meander-he went like a rocket. Something seemed to ail him. He made a line for the house, went up the steps at a bound, and as his wife asked him the cause of his haste he replied:

"Thunder!—oop! hoop!"
"Is this house on fire?" she asked,
as he tore around the parlor and upset things. "House be—oop! Lordy!" he answered, as he made a circle of the room and dashed into the hall.

The dog rushed after him, the wife rushed after the dog, and the man bounded out of the house.

"Are you crazy Robert?" shreiked the wife, as she beheld him pounding his legs with his new silk hat. Two or three boys ran in from the street; a strange dog came in and go up a fight, and all things conspired make a lively time. "He's got the colic!" yelled one the boys.

"Or the tremers!" shouted anothe "See that hat!" called a third. "Boys, go out of here," whispere the panting man, as he stopped usin his hat. They went out, and, as l limped into the house, his tearful wi

"Now, then, will you tell me who has happened?" "No, I won't!" he shouted and didn't. She fell into hysterics at th thought that he had used his brai too much, and had suddenly becam crazed; and he went down to the drug store and applied arnica to the spot and informed the clerk that eleve thousand of the largest kind of bun ble-bees settled right down on him i

A good old lady, very particular and pious, once kept a boarding-house in Boston. Staunch in her principles she would take no one to board who did not hold to eternal punishment of a portion of the race. But the people were more intent on carnal comforts than spiritual health, so that in time her house became empty, much to her grief and alarm. After some time a bluff old sea captain knocked at her door, and the old lady answered the call. "Servant, ma'am. Can you give me board for two or three days? Got my ship here, and shall be off as soon as I can load!

"Wa'al, I don't know," said the lady, "Oh, the house is full, eh?" "No; but-"But what, ma'am?"

"I don't take any unclean or carnal people into my house. What do you believe?" "About what?"

"Why, do you believe that any one will be condemned?" "Oh, thunder! yes."
"Do you?" said the good woman brightening up, "well, how many souls do you think will be in fire eter-

A young gentleman who attended a party in this city, a short time since, aanded to a lady with whom he was but

What perfect, what estaltic bliss to print upon thy lips a kiss.

Colonel J. P. Jackson to whom referance has been heretofore made in connection with the new management of the Los Angeles and Independence railroad, reached this city on Friday morning and immediately proceeded to Santa Monica to take a view of the situation and examine the wharf and railroad. He returned to the city yesterday delighted with Santa Monica as a watering place and well pleased with the progress that has been made with the Company's work. For some days past, conjectures and rumors have been many with regard to Col. Jackson's connection with the Los Angeles and Independence railroad company and all are desirous of information on the subject. The Col. is a thorough business man and being such does not carry his purpose and business on his sleeve for daws to peck at, but of this all may rest assured. He has the entire control of Senator JONES' business and the Los Angeles and Indepennence railroad is exclusively under his management. He positively asserts that the road will be pushed forward with all speed. Colonel Jackson is a valuable acquisition to this part of the State and we welcome him to Los Angeles.

State Superintendent.

Mr. GUINN, Independent nominee for Superintendent of Public Instruction, has withdrawn from the contest. This leaves the race between Dr. FITZ-GERALD and Professor CARR. Judging from the result of the recent election, there is little room for supposing anything else than the overwhelming election of the Democratic nominee; but there are reasons, outside of party predilection, which recommend the the election of Mr. FITZGERALD, the most potent of which is his superlor qualifications for the position. Professor CARR, though a man of education, is impractical and wanting in those methodical business qualities, so essential to the successful supervision of our public schools. He is a good hearted, simple minded gentleman, whose very simplicity of nature would if he was elected State Superintendent, soon involve him in a cloud of difficulties, from which he would hard. ly release himself without injury to the school system. On the other hand, Mr. FITZGERALD is a man of thorough business habits, practical and methodical. His experience as State Superintendent has placed him in possession of all the details of the office. There is no part or branch of the office but he is perfectly familiar with. During his four years term he accomplished a great deal in the way of placing our public school system on an equality with the best in the Eastern states. If he is reelected, he will complete the work he then inaugurated, and the people of California will have reason to feel proud of their public schools

The Mississippi Trouble

Washington, September 11th.— The situation in Misssissippi grows more perplexing each hour. He also assures the Attorney General that a sufficient number of reliable men who are willing to uphold the State government and assist in protecting lives are ready and willing to go to any part of the State for the purpose. All they require is requisitions from the Governor for their services. OFFICE OF CHARLOTTE CON-solidated Gold Mining Co.—The propersolidated Gold Mining Co.—The property of this Company, after considerable development, has yielded returns beyond their expectations, and every indication thus far points to a still more valuable result. The various and reported assays and the result by arastra proves that there is ore yielding from $30 to $400 per ton, and the Company feel themselves watranted in the statement that these mines are permanent and valuable ledges. In view of those facts they have authorized the sale of a very limited amount of ledges. In view of those facts they have authorized the sale of a very limited amount of stock, for working capital, at $5 per share. The public school motto the coming week is "Be Polite."

Rev. C. F. Loop preaches in the Episcopal Church to-day. Mr. O. P. Hoddy of the Calistago Free Press is in Los Angeles.

Is not a man who retires from the bee business a true bee-leaver.

Goldsmith is at the Orient cigar stand, and sells only the finest cigars. Last night there was a rush for the Orient cigar stand to get those fine ci-

There was more than the usual number of people in town to-day from the neighboring ranches. Gold in New York yesterday was 116½ per cent premium. Greenbacks bought at 851 and sold at 86.

There are many citizens of Los Angeles who are now in favor of the increased volume of currency. Use breeds habit in a smoker. If one gets in the way of buying his cigars of Goldsmith, at the Orient saloon, he never leaves off. Sam. Prager goes up to San Francisco in a few days for another steamer load of goods. Meantime the fine things on hand will be sold cheap. The monthly temperance meeting will be held at Good Templars Hall oody smokes. The school of Mrs. Dubois on State street is so crowded that the Board of Education has given instructions not to admit any more pupils. A report reached town last night that a serious cutting affray had occurred at San Fernando. Officer Mitchell was sent to the scene of action. No particulars received.

The St. Charles hotel is on of the popular establishments of this city. It is always full of guests and its table is kept supplied with the best in the son.

Mrs. White the popular teacher of Robbin's new method on the piano has already a large class of pupils who are advancing rapidly. Her rooms are at the Backman House.

The Nights of Pithias turned out in force last evening to serenade Mr. James J. Mellus; the popular City Treasurer. As they passed down Main street in carriages, with the band playing a lively air, quite a sensation was

Of five new school houses erected in Los Angeles during vacation four are already so full as to demand additional furniture. It was thought these would be sufficient for the year but it is now apparent that they will be crowded before Christmas.

Mr. W. H. Norway of Santa Barbara who has for some time been surveying among the foot hills while coming into Los Angeles yesterday with Mr. Hull was throw from the vehicle and sustained serious but not dangerous injury.

We are as proud of all the "big things that California gets up as anybods, and recognize the fact that $30,-000 is a respectable sum to put up as the prize of a horse race, but hardly think it is, as the San Francisco telegram says, "the largest purse ever given in the world."

It is said the miners in Nevada, when attending church, sit on the backs of the chairs during prayer and squirt tobacco juice over the floor. The minister is encouraged in his exhortations with such responses as "go it, old hoss," "give 'em brimstone," &c., &c. The old miners lying around Los Angeles are more civilized. They go around behind the church and play 'bean poker."

In 1874 a trunk belonging to John Rotschman on Main street was broken open and $40 stolen tnerefrom. Yesterday detective Harris arrested Franz Lorber charged with the larceny. Lorber was left in charge of the room and when the proprietor re-turned the trunk was found rifled and the temporary custodian gone. Gold is appreciating rapidly. This is no doubt due to the stoppage of the specie shipments from California. There is a heavy demand for gold at the East to send abroad in settlement of the large balance of trade against the United States from deficiency in the exports of domestic products. San Fraucisco has furnished $30,000,000 coin for this puspose during the last six months and now that she will want a larger proportion of the product of her mines for home use, the premium naturally advances in

The Commissioners of Education for the last census compiled a table showing the per centage of illiterate persons, ten years of age and over, to the total population. In the Southern States the average is 451 per cent., the highest being 57½ in South Carolina, and the lowest $35\frac{3}{4}$ in Kentucky. In an equal number of other Western and Northern States the per centage is 6.86. The per centage of illiterates in California is 7.37, in Ohio 8.86, in Pennsylvania 8.56, in Connecticut 6.95. Judging by the way schools are increasing in Los Angeles the per centage here will soon be very small.

DISAPPOINTMENT:

[THE WAIL OF AN INDEPENDENT.]

The saddest blow, the human heart e'er feels, Is that which cruel disappointment deals. It strikes a terror, to our inmost soul, Which we can ne'er forget, nor ne'er control.

We yield like children, to its tyrant sway, And curse the tears, we have no power to stay. Life seems a blank when cheering hopes have fled. Alas! they now are passionless and dead.

Our expectations fill our hearts with joy, Awakening pleasures free from base alloy. Then disappointment, with a cruel hand, Dissolve those joys, as waves dissolve the

The spoils of office vanish from our view. And promised honors, which we never knew,

In triumph, crown the enemies we hate. As jealous hatred, heats the jilted lover, Who seeks in drink, his burning wrongs to cover.

So defeat, the rankling feelings sting. Of him, who sought the peoples vote, As an Independent honest-turn-coat. Sad, sad indeed, is this man's bitterest foe, It drags him down to misery and woe.

It kills his spirit and destroyes his pride

No human power avails, his grief to hide.

SUNDAY READING.

Selected for Sunday's HERALD.

THE MASTER'S CALL. They tell me a solemn story, But it is not sad to me, For in its sweet unfolding

My Savior's love I see: They say that at any moment The Lord of Life may come, To lift me from this cloud-land Into the light of home.

I may not even hear The rustling of His garments As He softly draweth near; Suddenly, in a moment, Upon my ear may fall

They say I may have no warning;

To answer the master's call. Perhaps H'ell come in the noontide Of some bright, sunny day. When, with dear ones all around me. My life seems bright and gay, Pleasant must be the pathway, Easy the shining road, Up from this dinner sunlight, Into the light of God.

Perhaps he comes in the stillness Of the mild and quiet night, When the earth is calmly sleeping In the moonbeams' silvery light; When the stars are softly shining O'er slumbering land and sea; Perhaps in the holy stillness relations should do the same. How to reconcile the two harmoniously is a problem to many a christian wife, having a skeptical husband, or one who "does not meddle with religion, either now, R P Katz, Charles Thomas, J "does not meddle with religion, either Borden, Capt G Johnson & wife, W H way." Sunday School at 12½. Seats free, and all cordially invited to attend. The Rev. Wm. H. Hill preaches at the San Gabriel church at 11, and at Jones' hat a series of the church, etc., her conscience clamors case. It is not unusual to hear a world-ly man complain—"If my wife's religion is to come between us, and lift her so far above me, I want none of it;" and he is right. True, pure religion unites, not estranges, loving ones. The trouble here is that the wife, seeing her husband's indifference, and perhaps fearing its influence upon herself, devotes her attention so earnestly to good works, that other more commonplace duties are disregarded. The husband catches a pitying look on his wife's face, (pity is unpalatable to most of us) or hears her say to a friend, "If poor, dear John would only join the church, I would have hope for his salvation." So the poor fellow, seeing himself a heathen in his wife's eyes, often becomes almost as bad as one from sheer desperation. If, instead of this, her devotions were quietly, un-obtrusively conducted, and their influence brought to bear upon her house-hold duties and trials, silently show-ing the ennobling effect of the holy element, no reasonable man could help loving and respecting her more than before. Reasoning so frequently confounds doctrines with disciples, that the most zealous may bring discredit upon their faith by inconsistent deportment.

Jesus Whispertng.

"What is conscience?" said a Sunday-school teacher one day to the lit-tle flock that gathered around to learn the words of life.

Several of the children answeredone saying one thing, and another another-until a little timid child spoke "It is Jesus whispering in our hearts."

A little boy, whose father had been taken from him, at the close of his evening prayer, "Good-night, papa!" and, looking up into his mother's questioning face, gave this sweet explanation. "Papa is with God, you know; and God will tell him."
